VAST ARMIES AND THEIR MOVEMENTS.—There have been vast armies and grand movements in ancient times. Here is a record of some of them:

Sennacherib, the Bible tells us, lost in a single night 185,000 by the destroying angel.

The city of Thebes had 100 gates, and could send out at each gate 10,000 fighting men and 200 chariots, in all 100,000 men and 20,000 chariots.

The army of Terrah, King of Ethiopia, consisted of 1,000,000 men and 200 chariots of war.

Sesostris, King of Egypt, led against his enemies 600,000 men, 24,000 cavalry, and 27 scythe-armed chariots—1491 B. C.

Hamilcar went from Carthage and landed near Palermo. He had a fleet of 2,000 ships and 2,000 small vessels, and a land force of 200,000 men. At the battle in which he was defeated 150,000 were slain.

Ninus, the Assyrian King, about 2,200 B. C., led against the Bactrians an army of 1,700,000 men, and 16,000 chariots armed with scythes.

Semiramis employed 2,000,000 men in building Babylon. She took 105,000 prisoners at the Indus and sank 1,000 boats.

A short time after the taking of Babylon, the forces of Cyrus consisted of 600,000 foot 120,000 horses, and 2,000 chariots armed with scythes. An army of Canibysees, 50,000 strong, was buried up in the desert sands of Africa, by the south wind.

When Xerxes arrived at Thermopylae, his land and sea forces amounted to 2,614,610, exclusive of servants, eunuchs, women, artlers, etc, in all numbering 5,282,220. So says Herodotus, Plutarch, and Isocrates.

The army of Artaxerxes, before the battle of Cunaxa, amounted to 1,2000,000.

Ten thousand horses and one hundred thousand foot fell in the fatal field of Issts.

When Jerusalem was taken by Titus, 1,100,000 men perished in various ways.

The army of Tamerlane is said to have amounted to 1,600,000, and that of his antagonist Bajazet, to 1,400,000.

AMONG the curiosties lately placed in a museum, is a musquitoe's bladder, containing the sole of twenty four Government contractors, and the fortunes of twelve editors. It is nearly half full.

WED[illegible]NING, 13.

An American Monopoly.

[illegible] or [illegible]mental [illegible] is [illegible]
ed to make palpable the imposition, to American citizens here, of the One-Man-Power policy of Brigham Young and his Salt Lake City Council. It is so patently pernicious to the interests of the government, the Great West, and to all "gentile" enterprise in Utah, that a mere mention of some single facts will furnish food for thinking to

To [illegible] this rotten clique of Mormon monopolists, who are fattening off the industry of the Gentiles without giving them equivalents or even advantages for equivalence, is this free territory of ours. We drop the effort and the object of this journal for some years past. And to turn the attention of the authorities to this section, so much checked and controlled by those saintly church cormorants, has been our highest hope and holiest ambition,—knowing as we do, that it is suicidal to the interests and the glory of the great Nation to have these selfish swindles, Church corruptions and Council persecutions pass unnoticed—aye, and unpunished—by those parties perpetuating them from time to time.

Without going into a regular enumeration with respective comments, or essaying a fearer logical and lengthy to show up the grand swindles which the gentiles are made to suffer, suffice it, for the hour, to simply state some facts: first, that Brigham's Council enacted an ordinance ostensibly against whisky selling and billiard playing, but really and exclusively for the persecution of gentile enterprise and for the profit of the Church. Second, that this said "corporation" have frequently filled their coffers by unreasonable fines on gentiles who sold or gave away such drinks as spruce beer, to the tune of $100 a "pop", while at the same time, they, the Council-Church clique keep open and on sale all sorts of maddening liquors, for the special benefit of this, their Brighamite monopoly. Third, that this Mormon monarchy shut up a genteel club-room, used for a billiard hall by friends of Mr Wm. Martin here, and that they fined him every now and then a hundred dollars, under the plea of their having pronounced it a "public nuisance". Thus no "gentile" can keep a saloon or billiard hall, while Brigham's persecuting tools, termed Councilmen for semblance to some system, have just bought out this same Bill Martin's "nuisance" of a Billiard Hall, (for $11,000) and have opened it themselves—to be run as the City Billiard Hall and Church saloon—for the special benefit of their cursed, shame-faced system!

Dy'e see it? They'll pronounce a respectable Billiard Hall or saloon a "public nuisance" and punish the gentiles enormously for running them a single hour,—while the next breath the sly old Fox, whispering to his serfs, will cause those self same "City nuisances" to be bought up by the "City," so as to run them their own selves (!) and thus keep others out! Buy up or close up all the "nuisances" of town, and then re-open them, under the same City Council guise that called them "nuisances"—to make drunkards and loafers for the financial interests of the exclusive autocrat the [illegible] and [illegible] ye turn-coats and dough-faced "friends" of Gentile Enterprise and Equal Rights in Utah, and then consider to what a pretty pass, free and independent citizens are subject to, if these things shall continue and these monopolies of foreign fanatics and law breakers are not checked by statute, shame or sword!

Gen. Connor and Col. Tappan.

A private letter from Col. Tappan, dated Camp Connor, Bear River, November 16th, has the following: "This morning at Army Headquarters, Col. Bo[illegible] received the Rocky Mountain News forwarded by you. I have no report to make, neither shall I ask his permission to return to Colorado, and no threats of assassination, like those in the News, will deter me.

I wish you to understand the facts and therefore say, that if Gen. Connor is denounced it is not on account of anything I have told to say, as I have no personal knowledge of his recent expedition, and therefore could say nothing. On my arrival here I found official reports from officers high in command, unfavorable to Gen. Connor. More than this I know nothing.

I shall do all that I can to insure perfect safety to emigrants on all our routes of travel and secure, if possible, the transfer of the Indian bureau to the War Department, and an abandonment of the entire system of treaty-making.

These changes with a vigorous campaign against the Indians, will secure their entire subjugation, and give peace to the people of Colorado.

I have constantly labored for this end, and shall continue to do so. As an officer in the service of the Government my allegiance and service [illegible] the Government. Nor [illegible] my high personal regard for Gen. Connor, and anything [illegible] Colorado and the [illegible] have been victims of the "gallant General's" [illegible], Ingersoll, Judiciary, [illegible] and will soon appear.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

New York, Dec. 11.

Wynkoop, lately in command at Ft. Lyon, Colorado, has given safe conduct to the messengers of Black Kettle and Little Raven, Chiefs of the Cheyennes and Arapahoes, to the north of the Platte River, to meet in council with that portion of [illegible] sometime [illegible] who are considered hostile to the Government, in order to convince them of the necessity of immediately entering into relations of amity with the U. S. and its property.

Chauncey M. Depew declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times special says, about four hundred editorials on the President's Message have been received at the White House and about 99 per cent of them heartily endorse the Presidents past and commends his future policy.

Reliable information is received by Gen. Howard that exonerates Gen. Tillson in his management of freedmen in Wilkes County, Georgia, the most outrageous conduct towards freedmen and colored [illegible] the removal of the military in the County above named and other parts of the State. Hon. N. M. Reeve, Judge of the District Court of that County, asks at the request of the freedmen and responsible citizens that the military be sent back.

Joint Commissioners for the settlement of claims between the U. S. and Columbia, disposed of about 62 cases or about one-third of all the cases on docket; nearly all result in judgments for claimants.

New York, Dec. 10.

The World's special says the state department has received by last European steamer important dispatches from Minister Adams. There is strong reason to believe Ireland will back down from her position on the Alabama and at once consent to just, equitable adjustment of the question in dispute. The temper of the last dispatch which emanated from the President himself, was calculated to open the eyes of the English government. A gentleman writing from England last month [illegible] this city says: The Queen, our friend, wont allow Earl Russel to take any position that will cause a rupture between the governments.

Washington, Dec 11.

SENATE.—Mr. Wilson presented the petition of Francis Cook and 2,500 others, colored people of the District of Columbia, asking the right of suffrage. Referred to the Committee on the District of Columbia.

The President pro tem announced the following committee to act with the House committee on the subject of Lincoln's death: Foote, Yates, Wade, Fessenden, Wilson, Doolittle, Lane of Kansas, Harris, Nesmith, Lane of Indiana, Wiley, Buckalew, and Henderson.

On motion of Mr. Sherman, so much of the President's Message as relates to finance was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Grimes presented a bill to grant an extension of the term for the completion of certain Iowa railroads.

Mr. Sumner presented a bill to confirm land titles granted by Gen. Sherman to colored men in Sea Island. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Brown introduced a bill to grant lands for the construction of railroads through Missouri and Arkansas to the Pacific coast, by the southern pass. Referred to the Committee on the Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Stewart presented a bill to establish a mining bureau. Referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. Wilson presented a joint resolution to prevent the sale of bonds and scrip of the late Confederacy. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Nye gave notice of a bill to change the eastern boundary of the State of Nevada so as to include additional territory to be taken from Utah and Arizona; also a bill for the speedy completion of the Pacific R.R. Howard introduced a resolution calling upon the President for what information he has in his possession respecting the reoccupation of Mexican territory. Adopted. Adjourned. The Speaker announced the standing committee, the chairmen of which are as follows:

Wilson, Chairman, committee on Pacific Railroad; Price, of Iowa, on Claims; Delano, of [illegible] Julian of Indiana, on Post Offices; Alley, of Massachusetts, on Revolutionary claims; Whaley, of Western Virginia, on Public Expenditures; Hubbard, of Iowa, on Private land claims; Thayer, of Pennsylvania, on Manufactures; Morehead, of Massachusetts, Agriculture; Bidwell, of California, on Indian affairs; Windham of Minnesota, on Military; Smith of Kentucky, on Territories; Ashley, of Ohio, on Revolutionary Pensions; McIndoe, of Wisconsin, on Roads and Canals, Beamerin, Michigan; on Patents, Jenks, Rhode Island; on Public Buildings and Grounds, Rice, of Maine; Select Committee on rules, the Speaker; Select Committee on Expenditures in the Navy Department, Jenckes, of Rhode Island; Select Committee on Freemen, Elliott, of Massachusetts.

Mr. Washburne, moved that two hundred and fifty thousand, extra copies of General Grant's report be printed. Referred to Committee on Printing.

Mr. Noell offered resolution that the House wont exclude Members of Congress, elect from any States, recently in rebellion of [illegible] grees, were excluded from voting at the [illegible] for Rules Members. In base arising from the resolution [illegible]

Local and Miscellaneous.

DAILY SCHOOL.

Of love and peace thou'rt sweetly singing;
But diamond be thy point, my pen,
When crime's dumb bells are round thee ring.

THE SLEIGHING.—The sleighing these days is splendid. Several sleds and cutters are sporting it along our streets.

THE GOVERNOR has probably delivered his Message to the Mormon Legislature yesterday afternoon. Suppose it will appear in the organs of that institution.

OFFICE.—TENNYSON'S beard is white, his complexion sallow, his nose straight and his face rather long.

THE CALIFORNIA STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY has presented to a number of Sacramento ladies who were distinguished for kind attention to the Yosemite sufferers, free passes to travel on its boats to San Francisco untill March next.

HON. JOHN A. KASSON, of Iowa, just returned from a journey across the Plains, delivered a lecture in Des Moines, Iowa, on Saturday night last, in which he said his experience led him to agree with Major General Pope that all Indian affairs should be transferred and the supervision of Indian affairs transferred to the War Department.—St. Louis Democrat Nov. 24.

SOFT THING.—There's a juicy tit-bit of scandal on the wing, which may serve as data for a full-sized squib on love, marriage and divorce, during these frosty mornings when other items are cold or scarce. The dramatis personæ are in a "fix." Pride and pretty little women have to have a fall, for the sake of keeping common folks in order. "Theatricals are not high toned enough for us." Bah!

VANDENHOFF has quit the stage and took to lecturing on religion, delivering his first essay, a few weeks ago, in Dayton, Ohio, on "the Bible as a Literary Book." He is like those French dames of the old regime, who, after a little of wickedness, always gave their closing years to the strictest religious observances, by way of making ready for a comfortable deathbed.

THE REGULAR ARMY.—The question of increase of the regular army has been elaborately discussed by Generals Grant, Thomas, Hancock, and other leading Generals. These officers are in favor of the proposition, which looks to the increase of the infantry to forty battalion regiments of one battalion each, and corresponding increase of the other arms of the service to be raised in all seventy-five thousand troops. Secretary Stanton favors the plan, and it will doubtless be adopted.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.—From among the many compliments being paid our little sheet by brethren of the press, we will give place only to the following pair, at present, lest the reader might accuse it of becoming vain:

The Union VEDETTE suspended two days in order to move into the heart of the Holy City," Salt Lake. It's a rip staving paper. We hope it will live on—despite musterings out.—Gold Hill. Nev. News.

The Union Vedette has lately been removed to the heart and business portion of Salt Lake City. The VEDETTE has been heretofore throwing hot shot (at short range) into the Mormons of [illegible] quarters, nor resting on arms. Now, that the institution is anchored, soul and body, in the centre of polygamy, we look for an increased success. The VEDETTE is prospering; it publishes the latest telegrams; is a central organ for information in general, and is one of our best and most regular exchanges. May it disorganize and disperse polygamy, and wave over the ruins!—Owyhee, Idaho, Avalanche.

DRAMATIC ITEMS.—Forrest, the great tragedian, is announced to play for Maguire in San Francisco the coming winter.

McKean Buchanan and Wrighton are starring it in western New York.

Avonia Jones appeared in "East Lynne," at the Prince of Wales' Theater, Birmingham, England, on the 23d of October. Dr. E. P. Hingston, who was along here as agent of Artemus Ward a couple of winters since, is her avant courier.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams were in Philadelphia, the middle of last month.

Laura Keene is playing in a Nashville theater.

John Drew and Chanfrau are to play in Philadelphia this winter.

The "Chapman Family" are at Helena, Montana, where Mrs. Chapman had a benefit on the 28th ult., the pieces being "The French Spy" and "Hole in the Wall".

Mess. Langrishe and Richmond's theatre at Denver city is said to be doing a big business, as the clever management so well deserve.

Bates said he did not mean to have "resigned" on the show business this winter. We read nothing of it in this part of the country.

The inimitable Irwins, aided by the Potter Troupe are starring it at the Academy of Music nightly, in this city.

Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne, supported by Mr. Waldron and the stock company of the Salt Lake Theater, is still starring it in the Saints' shrine three times a week, with unabated success.

BRIGHAM'S ANACONDA.—A prominent man [illegible] who was for four or five years one of the head men in Mormon management of affairs here, recently stated on our streets that the Brighamite monopoly is being constructed [illegible] part of thinking Mormons in the distant settlements. The scales are fast falling from their eyes, and the pressure of Brigham's anaconda is forcibly being loosened by its victims in the south and north. Said he, all the moneys of the people in the settlements had the assurance of permanent protection sufficient to sustain them against the consequences, many of Brigham's subjects, now priest-ridden slaves, would assert their independence of the "President's" monopolies, and become citizens of the Union, as they want to be. As a specimen of the serfdom under which they have been held by Brigham's anaconda, it should be known that throughout [illegible] church sutler stores have been established, at which all sorts of goods were sold at highest figures to the saints, and no other mercantile establishments allowed or sanctioned there. This system has been introduced all round, and gradually the concentric cords were tightened, until now the grand monopoly obtains all over Utah, except within a certain radius of Salt Lake city, where the policy is, no doubt, to introduce this church sutler system arrangement in a year or two at furthest. Should the giant swindle prosper, and the people not rebel, the Priesthood will control the whole commercial trade of the too-confiding saints.

In each Bishop's "diocese" throughout the territory, the order is to raise so much—in money, means or stock—to help start an outfit of five hundred wagons to go to the States this spring, ostensibly to freight their own goods and save so much in freight &c., for the benefit of the masses. But these people first agree to wait five years before they shall draw out (of these Church Sutler stocks after they do arrive) the amounts now being contributed. That is, Brigham sends those five hundred teams to the east, which are being "pressed" from the poor farmers, and his supreme hierarchy will have the benefits of the same for five years hence, all because the poor, deluded victims dare not assert their independence of the monopoly. The goods which will be brought out for sale here, by this big Brighamite train, will be held at highest market figures, for cash or produce, to the people; and, though they themselves contributed the teams and wagons, they will have to wait five years before they can get their "money back," even in store goods at Church prices! No wonder that the saints are beginning to complain against these galling swindles. No wonder that this sanctimonious Prophet's credit is so good on 'Change in London and New York!

FROM CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.

Tom Maguire's manager and Pat McDougal, a concert man, to-day. The quarrel grew out of Maguire's promising to let Emily Thorne sing at the concert of the British Benevolent Society last night, and afterwards withdrawing it. Maguire announced the fact to the audience, stating the case: apologizing for the non-appearance of Thorne in the second part, and insinuating that Maguire was not very reliable.

THERE will be a trotting race, mile heats, best three in five, over the Ocean Course next Monday, between George M Patchen, jr., May Queen and Gentleman George for a purse of $1,250.

EX-GOVERNOR WM. BIGLER has made a purchase of thirty-six veins, of De la Borde & Goguelat, at Clear creek, Cal., for an Eastern company, for the very small sum of seventy five thousand dollars. In the purchase is included the Rhone, Lyon and Rochfort—all of them [illegible] Vieilla Dolk, rich paying lodes.

We give, tho' not the whole as new."

HOOTS MON at ELKO

Our pardon-seeking chevaliers
Are boring Andy Johnson,
That he will forget of their fears
And let each keep his secession.
They promise to be very good
In all the coming future,
And be ardent out Union-blood
For in all future,
Not hard to obtain for us to tell
What makes them good so quickly,
To bow and scrape at "Seward's bell,"
And press round Stanton thickly,
No doubt but some earned "Secesh"
May want hole-in-the-Confederacy;
And others good, in hopes the laws
Will give their "claim" some payment.
But what's the odds. Let some be good
For food, and some for clothing;
I'll bet—if rightly understood—
The most are good for nothing!

THE brewers and beer-sellers of New York are at lager-heads.

THE world is packed so close that if one stands at another stumbles.

SPEAKING eyes, like speaking tongues, should be careful not to speak too loud.

THE human spirit is like an eagle—the higher it rises from the earth, the more awful is its solitude.

IT may be said of many a fellow, that when he sees whisky his mouth waters, and when he sees water his mouth whiskies.

RED noses are light-houses to warn voyagers on the sea of life off the coast of Malaga, Jamaica, Santa Cruz and Holland.

We should marry so as to keep pure our domestic ideal.

"I am on the trail of a dear," as the deer said when he stepped on one of the many familar steet sweepers.

A servant asked her mistress whether she could oblige her by going out on a particular afternoon as she was going to have a party, and wanted the loan of the drawing-room.

An Arkansas Buttermut advertised that "Any gal what has got a coffee-pot and skillet, and who knows how to take care of children," can hear of a situation by applying to "the undersigned."

MANY are the prayers for aid which go up in the time of need from the children of men, but very few in comparison are the thank offerings which acknowledge the gift when received.
